Description

Newly refurbished one bedroom flat.

This newly refurbished one bedroom apartment is located between Queen's Park and West Kilburn, a popular residential area in North West London known for its village atmosphere, excellent transport links, and wide range of local amenities. The area combines attractive Victorian and Edwardian housing with easy access to central London, making it particularly popular with families and young professionals. Residents benefit from the open green spaces of Queen's Park, which offers tennis courts, a café, playgrounds, sports facilities, and landscaped gardens. The park is a focal point for the local community and hosts regular events throughout the year
